

The Baptiste Power of Yoga: Yoga Teacher Certification 2011 Program

INTRODUCTION AND OVERVIEW

Experience the flow in your body and be engaged in an exploration of universal principles of asana practice. No longer will you merely go through the motions of your practice or your teaching. You will learn distinctions that will bring the flow to life; it will seep into your nervous system, becoming ingrained in your cellular memory. You will also come to understand more clearly with time your practice, and the purpose behind the asanas.

Baptiste Yoga as a Life Style
What to expect in each training module

CONTACT HOURS (180 HOURS)

I. TEACHING TECHNIQUES: APPLICATION OF BAPTISTE POWER OF YOGA FLOW YA: Techniques Training/Practice (100 hours) 75 contact hours, 50 with primary E-RYT@s? Includes asanas, pranayamas, chanting, mantra, meditation and other traditional yoga techniques. To accommodate the Yoga Alliance standards, these hours must be a mix between: 1) analytical training in how to teach and practice the techniques and 2) guided practice of the techniques themselves. Both areas must receive substantial emphasis. Note: Contact Hours in this category must be in a dedicated yoga teacher training environment (into which others might occasionally be invited) rather than in classes intended for the general public.

During this program, you will engage and learn the basic key aspects of the time-tested Power of Yoga Asana Sequence that has proven to be a popular, effective, and powerful practice for people from all walks of life.

Keeping a class inspiring and different week by week can be challenging to any yoga instructor, but toss in the physicality of sequencing a class appropriately for optimal health and to guard against injury can be a daunting task. So often, in an effort to provide variety and creativity within the sequencing of a class, structure and foundation is compromised. This module will provide the tools necessary and a few basic rules of thumb to follow when planning and organizing the sequence and series within any yoga class. This module will also cover some simple guidelines to follow when reading the energy of the class as a means of determining what kind of sequence to offer as well as how to structure a class geared toward multiple levels and abilities within the class

Please note: During the course of this 'yoga teacher certification' training, Sherri Baptiste will schedule four one-on-one sessions with you to help you discover your own authentic emphasis as a teacher and to keep expanding into new levels of technical knowledge, impact, precision, effectiveness, and connection with the people and the lives you touch.

During the natural course of the program many of these areas will be included.

II. TEACHING METHODOLOGY: PRACTICUM

YA (25 hours) 15 contact hours, 10 with primary E-RYTs. Includes principles of demonstration, observation, assisting and correcting, instruction, teaching styles, qualities of a teacher, the student's process of learning and business aspects of teaching yoga. Although your curriculum may include more than five hours on business aspects of teaching yoga, a maximum of five such hours can be counted. Practicum (10 hours) 5 contact hours with primary E-RYTs Includes practice teaching, receiving feedback, observing others teaching and hearing and giving feedback. Also includes assisting students while someone else is teaching. Note: A minimum of 5 contact hours must be spent actively teaching (not assisting or observing)

Through practical experience in leading classes, assisting classes, and receiving live feedback on your teaching, this week of the teacher certification program will prepare you to lead a compelling and quality yoga class from start to finish with confidence and clarity.

COMMUNICATION

Art of Effective Cueing

Atmosphere and Intention

Language and Voice Awareness

Words are the tools we use to communicate a powerful yogic experience. As a teacher, your voice must be clear and resonant; your words must be precise and inspiring. Students will learn how the vibration of language can change the expression of the body. This week you will uncover a voice which moves the body as you hone language to move the spirit. Concrete exercises and drills are designed to: unleash the power of your voice, avoid overused phrases, vary tone and inflection, eliminate the breathy "yoga teacher voice", provide appropriate silence and space, and much more. As you teach, you will receive live and in action feedback from experienced teachers, practiced students, and your peers to help you clarify your expression and discover and develop your own habits.

HANDS-ON ASSISTING

Observation Technique

Safe and Effective Hands-On Assisting and Adjusting

Hands-on assists can powerfully bridge the gap between words and experience. You will learn to offer specific assists to address common structural issues and alignment imbalances. Understanding basic anatomy and physiology will let you see the essence of a pose in each student. Through assessment of specific issues in all types of bodies, you will learn to diagnose, approach, adjust, and exit a student's asana practice to give them optimal success in a pose and increase independence. You will develop a confidence in assisting students of all levels that will transform your impact on their bodies and their practices.

SEQUENCING AND TAILORING THE CLASS

Demonstrating and Multitasking

Adapting to and Creating Group Energy

Music and Design for Yoga Classes

Cultivating Confidence

(Student will submit a unique and authentic class of their own. You will teach a sample class to the training group and receive personalized feedback on your teaching.)

THE BUSINESS OF TEACHING YOGA

Business: From the ins and outs of certification requirements to the practical knowledge of how to get and keep a job teaching yoga to the nitty-gritty of insurance, marketing, pricing, self-employment, substitute teaching, owning your own studio, etc

III. ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY

YA (20 hours) 10 contact hours. Includes both human physical anatomy and physiology (bodily systems, organs, etc.) and energy anatomy and physiology (chakras, nadis, etc.). Includes both the study of the subject and application of its principles to yoga practice (benefits, contraindications, healthy movement patterns, etc). A minimum of five hours must be spent applying anatomy and physiology principles to yoga.

We will explore the anatomy and physiology of the human body through in-depth lectures, demonstrations, and comparisons as it relates to yoga practice.

IN ADDITION TO WORKSHOPS AND RETREATS IN THIS PROGRAM

To participate in this program: Commitment to personal and ongoing practice is a huge element in this process of certification through the Baptiste Power of Yoga, LLC Teacher Training Program:

BAPTISTE LINEAGE: To receive Yoga Teacher Certification through this program, you must have a minimum of hours of your own personal in-class practice time, with Sherri Baptiste or her list of recognized teachers. It is essential in the instructors training process, that you are being mentored through, that they have an ongoing and strong commitment to their own personal practice, and a strong tie to and sincere interest in the Baptiste inspired style, system, energy and Baptiste Method of Yoga™ during the training. The Baptiste Family carries a lineage of teachers in the Health, Fitness, Yoga and Dance world, based out of San Francisco (USA), that dates back almost 75 years.

The training program must be taken sequentially, and cannot be attended out of order, unless approved by Sherri Baptiste first. Completion of each session is a prerequisite for the next session. Hours and Credits will be given and recorded towards yoga teacher certification for those registered in the Baptiste Power of Yoga Teachers Training Program. These in-depth trainings typically take 9–18 months to complete. They are well paced and fun, giving you the time to know the principals of the yoga system experientially, as well as learning the techniques of yoga as an art, exercise system and practical science.

IN-CLASS HOUR REQUIREMENTS: It is the responsibility of the registered participant to keep a log of hours and unique credits listed for all sessions, retreats, workshops, and classes attended, during the training period.

- 2011 Yoga Teacher Certification -200 hr: The minimum requirement of 100 in class hours with Sherri Baptiste or recognized list of teachers below, is usually far exceeded by students in this teacher training group; most have 300 class hours or more.
